

CORONER'S COURT OF WA

Daily Operations of the Coroner's Court Update 1 February 2021

The wellbeing for all who come into contact with the coronial system continues to be of the utmost importance to the Coroner's Court. For the purposes of the lockdown announced yesterday by the Government of Western Australia the following measures apply for the five days between 1 February 2021 and 5 February 2021 inclusive (the lockdown period).

In-Court matters

- Please check the webpage for inquest hearings listed during the lockdown period.
- The February 2021 Call Over List is adjourned to Friday 12 February 2021.

Registry and Counselling Services

In-person counselling services that are provided by the Coronial Counselling service are suspended over the lockdown period. However telephone counselling sessions can still be arranged by contacting the court by telephone or email applications.

Appointments with senior next of kin for access to evidence obtained are suspended over the lockdown period.

The lodgement of documents, files, correspondence or any other supplementary information maybe lodged by email (coroner@justice.wa.gov.au) or by post, over the lockdown period.

Any further updates on the Court's services and practices will be made available on this website.
